RunMyProcess and Okin BPS Create Accelerated Digital Transformation for IBM Notes

Posted on 15th January 2019

Sunnyvale, CA., January 15, 2019 – Fujitsu RunMyProcess today announces a new partnership with Okin BPS to migrate and modernize IBM Notes applications for customers worldwide. RunMyProcess, Fujitsu’s high-productivity cloud platform, has teamed up with leading global professional services provider Okin BPS (Business Process Services) to provide accelerated digital transformation for enterprises still using IBM Notes – the collaboration suite formerly known as Lotus Notes.
